To whom it may concern;

In the year 1902, local rancher Ray Knight hosted the first rodeo in Canada in the town he founded - Raymond, Alberta. His plan was to bring together ranch hands from the area to test their skills and determine who the best working cowboys were. This tradition continues.

The 122nd year of the Raymond Stampede will take place at its new location on Saturday, June 29 at 6 pm and Monday, July 1st, 2023, at 2 pm. This event will be dual approved with Canadian Professional Rodeo Assoc. and the U.S. Professional Rodeo Cowboys Assoc.
